DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

125 Carolina Hall
p. (919) 962-5666
f. (919) 962-1567

Fall 2022

RELI 343
Religion in Modern Israel

The course offers a panoramic view and analytical understanding of Israel's culture, politics and religious life and groups, as well as a window into the political, religious, and ethnic realities of the Middle East at large. The course will offer an opportunity to study the religious communities operating in the country and their relationship with the Israeli state, as well as the place of religion in the international relations and global policies of Israel and its neighbors in the Middle East.

Yaakov Ariel
yariel@email.unc.edu

Tuesdays and Thursdays
11:00AM-12:15PM

Gen Ed Requirements: SS, BN
Ideas in Action: FC-POWER