

Muhammad and the Qur'an: RELI 289

“Seek knowledge, even if in China.” While involving (slightly) less travel, this course nonetheless takes students on a journey through different viewpoints on the Prophet Muhammad’s life and the Qur’an, Islam’s sacred text. Emphasizing the diversity of Muslim thought and practice over time and space, we will read a variety of primary and secondary texts.

No knowledge of Arabic necessary.

Gen Eds: HS/BN; T/TH 8:00–9:15am

Patrick D’Silva (pdsilva@live.unc.edu)