

Parr Center Forum: Islamophobia

Unpacking the Sources of Anti-Muslim Fear and Hostility

Please join the Parr Center for Ethics for a wide-ranging discussion of the multiple causes and effects of anti-Muslim fear and hostility in the United States.

Our panel will include:

Juliane Hammer (UNC Religious Studies)

Charles Kurzman (UNC Sociology)

Timothy Marr (UNC American Studies)

Melody Moezzi (author, activist, attorney)

Joseph Kennedy (UNC Law)

Tuesday, September 27, 2016

6:00 p.m.

University Room, Hyde Hall

FREE EVENT, OPEN TO ALL PIZZA WILL BE SERVED!

This program is co-sponsored by the UNC Department of American Studies, the UNC Center for Civil Rights, the Carolina Center for the Study of the Middle East & Muslim Civilizations, the Muslim Students Association, the UNC Department of Sociology, and the UNC Department of Religious Studies.

UNC
PARR CENTER FOR ETHICS