RELI 441
Religion in Early America

This course examines religion in America from precontact to the Civil War. We will chart the development of religious life, thought, and practice in North America, concentrating on areas later incorporated into the United States, but maintaining broad interest in other Americas.

Professor
Brandon Bayne
bayne@unc.edu

Tuesdays & Thursdays
2:00PM-3:15PM

General Education Requirements:
HS, NA