

RELI 270

Religion in Western Europe

In this course, we will explore various topics related to the past and present status of religion in general, and of certain religions in particular, within three Western European countries: the United Kingdom, France, and Germany. After investigating key historical moments in the history of religion in these countries, we will explore the present situation. Some parts of the course will be devoted to one country, while others will compare a certain topic in all three. By the end of this course, students will have a good grasp of religion's place in, and impact on, these three European countries, in the past and the present.

Evyatar Marienberg
evyatarm@unc.edu

Tuesdays and Thursdays
12:30PM-1:45PM

General Education Requirements: HS, NA

