This course explores the vibrant religious and social currents shaping Iran from the 16th century onwards. It takes students beyond the Iranian Revolution, to Iran’s rich philosophical heritage, its spectacular art and architecture, its unique flavors of sacred kingship, its cinematic traditions, its mystical and messianic movements, its cultures of protest, and its intellectual and religious diversity through the ages.

Waleed Ziad
wziad@email.unc.edu

Tuesdays and Thursdays
12:30PM - 1:45PM

General Education Requirements: HS, BN, WB