This class examines the attempted sacrifice by Abraham of his beloved son through a comparative approach. We will consider religious, philosophical, and ethical ramifications of the event from a variety of standpoints, including in the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur’anic tradition, while discussing cultural echoes in visual art, music, and other media.