If Jesus was Jewish, why are Judaism and Christianity two distinct religions today? How and when did the split between the two traditions occur? This course explores these complex questions, paying close attention to controversies playing out in Paul’s letters, the book of Hebrews, and other early Christian texts.

Bo Eberle
boeberle@live.unc.edu

Remote Only
Mostly Asynchronous

General Education Requirements: HS, NA, WB