REL 122
Introduction to Philosophical Approaches to Religion

This course is an introduction to philosophical inquiries regarding religion. We will address theological questions such as: Does God exist? What is the nature of the divine? Is there life after death? Addressing these questions from a philosophical standpoint requires relying on human insights rather than the authority of sacred texts. We will read authors from different faith traditions, and, in so doing, we will encounter different solutions to long-standing religious questions.

Remote only
Mostly Asynchronous

General Education Requirements: PH, IDEA